Professional Membership

Professional Membership of the Australian Institute of Management is your public commitment as a professional manager.

As Australia's only association for professional managers, you will be aligning yourself with over 20,000 other managers Australia wide as a person of experience, integrity and professionalism.

To join as a Professional Member – you need to have a minimum of two years experience in a management or supervisory role – dependant on qualifications.

Professional Membership is offered in three levels of status – Member (AIMM) – Associate Fellow (AFAIM) and Fellow (FAIM). Membership status is determined by experience and qualifications.

Formal certification is also available for those with appropriate qualifications to achieve Certified Professional Manager status (CPMgr). Please refer to the website or contact AIM SA for more information.

In addition to an increased standing amongst your peers, Professional Membership will also provide you with:

Access to exclusive member only events with AIM SA – if you aren't a Professional Member you will miss out on a range of unique opportunities for you to network with your peers at your level,

Discount rates to all AIM SA events, activities and courses,

Access to MemberNet online services providing you with exclusive 24-hour access to an outstanding business research tool with the latest business information, articles, and journals from around the globe, and

Your personal copy of Management Today – Australia's only dedicated management magazine.

Most importantly, Professional Membership is about being part of an association dedicated to a principle - better managers and leaders for a better society.
